MASSSES OF NAZI RESERVES THROWN INTO KHARKOV BATTLE

Red Armies Report Counter-Attack In One Sector Halted

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor
Masses of German reserves, flung into action after Nazi tank assaults failed, appeared to have checked Russia's offensive in the 11-day-old battle of Kharkov today although the Red Armies reported that in one sector they had smashed a counter-attack and "on the heels of the enemy, broke into a populated place."

Meanwhile, the Italian high command asserted that an Italian submarine had attacked a United States naval formation off the Brazilian coast on May 20 and sunk a battleship of the Maryland class.

In the past, such Axis claims have frequently turned out to be unfounded "fishing expeditions" in quest of information on Allied naval movements.

On the Russian front, the German high command asserted that Soviet attacks at Kharkov had been thrown back and that Hitler's armies had seized the initiative.

"The enemy is making furious efforts to take the initiative out of our hands," said dispatches to Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, "but this is not last year, and the relation of the opposing forces is quite different."

A German broadcast heard in London acknowledged that Russian troops had broken through "the main German fighting line" over an eight-mile front southeast of Lake Ilmen, 150 miles below Leningrad.

The broadcast said the assault collapsed in the face of stubborn German resistance.

Hitler's field headquarters reported merely that "southeast of Lake Ilmen, the enemy continued his ineffective attacks."

Heavy fighting in the Lake Ilmen, the enemy continued his ineffective attacks.

Heavy fighting in the Lake Ilmen region has raged around the bloody Staraya Russa sector, where the German 16th Army has been reported trapped for months.

A major Soviet breakthrough here would imperil the whole left flank of the German armies, including the siege forces around Leningrad.

Red Star said the Germans might have "succeeded in obtaining some partial limited successes," but declared that on the whole the Kharkov offensive was developing satisfactorily and "we have everything necessary to keep the initiative."

Front-line dispatches said the Germans were using tricky new tactics of screened attack with their tank forces, sending three groups into action; two small forces to distract Russian attention, then a third strong surprise force to catch the Russians on the flank.

Red Star declared this strategy failed and heavy losses were inflicted on the Germans.

The newspaper said that big-scale tank operations had dwindled except in one sector, and that even there a major tank clash lasting several days continued at a lower pitch.

For the first time, today's Soviet communiqué omitted mention of any general advance.

JAP CRUISER IS SUNK BY ALLIED SUBS

Large Warship and Two Merchant Vessels Claimed Bagged Along With Number Planes

DETAILS ARE GUARDED

Allied Headquarters, Australia, May 22.—(P)—The list of Japan's naval losses in the southwest Pacific was swelled today by the announcement that Allied submarines had sunk a 7,100-ton cruiser and two merchant ships totaling 15,000 tons.

The bulletin, from General MacArthur's headquarters, also reported that Allied air raiders had destroyed or damaged 14 more planes in attacks on Japanese bases in New Guinea and Timor.

The sunken cruiser was identified officially as one of the Kako class, all four of which were completed in 1926-27, mount six eight-inch guns, and normally carry crews of 604 men each. The class includes the Kako, Hatakaze, Kingusasa and Aoba.

Allied headquarters, guarding information which might be of value to the enemy, did not say when or where the cruiser and the two cargo vessels—one of 9,000 tons and one of 6,000—had been sunk.

On the basis of information disclosed by the navy, however, it was believed the sinkings were connected with the recent Coral Sea naval battle, which—with related actions—was reported officially to have cost the Japanese 23 or 24 ships sunk or damaged.

Of the Japanese planes listed as knocked-out of action, two bombers and one fighter were destroyed on the ground by Allied planes in a low-altitude surprise attack yesterday on the airfield at Lae, New Guinea, headquarters said. Two other grounded planes were badly damaged.

Three of eight Japanese fighters which tried to break up the attack were shot out of the air by the Allied raiders, all of which returned safely to their base, the communiqué added.

Headquarters said it had been learned that three other Japanese planes were destroyed and three more damaged in a recent attack on the air field at Koepang, Timor. This apparently was a reference to the assault on that base Wednesday.

Ship Captain Believes Sub Crew Had Tip

New Orleans, May 22.—(P)—A sea captain expressed belief today that two torpedoes which sank his medium sized United States cargo ship in 90 seconds were fired by a submarine crew tipped in advance of the vessel's movements.

At least 21 members of the crew and the gun crew were carried to death in the amazing swift sinking, which occurred in the Gulf of Mexico May 16.

Captain A. Henry Rowe, of Alton, Pa., attached significance to the fact that the submarine not only attacked without warning, but did not surface after the sinking to obtain information about its victim, possibly indicating the submarine's officers already knew the ship's identity and its sailing plans.

The attack and sinking came with almost unprecedented speed, which contributed to the heavy loss of life. There was no time to use the radio to summon help and the 19 survivors rode lifeboats for about 30 hours before being picked up.

Five were hospitalized in Galveston, Tex., when brought ashore.

The submarine was not sighted. Two torpedoes struck 30 seconds apart, many of the crew dying in the engine room, which was directly hit.

June 30 Set For Registering Young Men Between 18 and 20

Washington, May 22.—(P)—President Roosevelt today set June 30 as registration day for young men between 18 and 20 years of age.

This will complete for the present the registration of the nation's manpower for both fighting and non-combatant war duty, and will be the fifth registration under existing law.

Young men 18 and 19 years of age will register between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. on June 30 and will not be subject to the military draft until they reach the age of 20. Males between 20 and 45 are now subject to military services.

SEIZURE OF AUTOMOBILES ENVISIONED

Private Research Group Urges Immediate Nationwide Rationing of Gasoline

TO AVERT BREAKDOWN

Washington, May 22.—(P)—Government requisitioning next year of several million privately-owned automobiles was envisioned as a distinct possibility by the Brookings Institute today.

The private research organization in a survey and report by Charles L. Deering made this prediction in urging immediate nationwide rationing of gasoline to save tires and cars for later allocation to essential war uses.

The administration is studying the question of extending to other parts of the country the gasoline restrictions now enforced in the east and northwest. To save more than 100,000 pounds of crude rubber, it already has ordered a ban on sightseeing and unessential charter buses after June 1.

The Brookings survey said immediate rationing of gasoline on a nationwide basis offered the "only reasonable prospect of averting a breakdown in essential automobile transportation."

Requisitioning, if it comes, would affect big cities more than small towns and rural sections, according to the survey, which found that automobiles were far less essential in cities where mass transportation facilities were available.

Approximately half the autos in use in cities of 500,000 population or more could be dispensed with, it said, despite the growing strain on public transportation facilities.

Only about 20 per cent could be released in towns of 25,000 to 50,000 and 15 per cent in rural areas because of the greater dependence of farmers and workers in small towns on automobiles.

LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOR STUDENT SLAYER

Chicago, May 22.—(P)—A criminal court jury convicted Clarence McDonald, 17, today and fixed his punishment at life imprisonment for the movie theater slaying of his high school sweetheart, Dorothy Broz, also 17.

A verdict carrying a penalty of life imprisonment was one of six choices for the jurors who in a nine-day trial heard the defense content that dapper McDonald was insane when he shot his girl friend to death as he kissed her in a darkened theater balcony.

Pleading for acquittal and mental treatment, the defense denied to McDonald's family history in arguing that he was insane when he fired a pistol bullet into Dorothy's breast on Feb. 24.

Rome Claims Spies On New England Coast

Augusta, Me., May 22.—(P)—Francis H. Farnum, state director of civilian defense, said today that "accurate information is in the possession of police and army authorities to show that foreign agents recently been landed on the coast of Maine."

"Others have come into the state over the Canadian border or from other parts of the United States," Farnum said in a prepared statement. "They are here for no good purpose and they are in our midst now. They come to plot, to damage, to destroy."

Only yesterday civilians and members of the volunteer defense corps were warned by United States and state officials in Boston to exercise especial watchfulness for enemy and fifth column action along the New England coast.

"Sometimes a special agent is sent to this country to perform some single task," Farnum added. "He is the pinch hitter, or the hit-and-run worker. Once his assignment is completed, he tries to make his way back to his native land or to join other spies in this country."

Farnum warned that it "entirely possible that the enemy may attempt to land parachutists or other air-borne troops in Maine" and added that "an attempt may even be made to organize bands of fifth columnists."

He urged the public to be watchful. "Think before you act, but not instantly if your suspicions cannot be fully satisfied."

Farnum did not disclose how or where agents already had landed on the Maine coast.

U. S. Army Now Encircles Globe War Department Says

Surprise Winner

Officials Warn Returning Civilians Against Danger Of Loose Talk

SUBJECTS DESIGNATED

BY WILLIAM FRYE
Washington, May 22.—(P)—With the United States army now circling the earth, the war department today warned its civilian employees returning from overseas assignments not to talk about where they had been or what they had seen.

American troops, land and air, hold advanced positions in more than a score of spots in all quarters of the globe—some already trading blows with the enemy, some guarding approaches to our own shores, all gathering strength for an eventual onslaught against the Axis.

To guard against leakage of vital information concerning these vast overseas operations, Secretary of War Stimson disclosed today that he had reminded the department's civilian employees that their military observations abroad should not be discussed with anyone but authorized officials.

Specifically, the secretary enjoined silence on 12 subjects, among them ports of embarkation and debarkation, the type of overseas activity, routes of convoys, names of ships, composition of convoys, troop concentrations, battle casualties, damage done to the enemy or damage inflicted by the enemy, air routes, or points of arrival or departure by air.

Arrival in northern Ireland of the largest troop convoy of the war, including armored units, was announced Sunday by American and British officials.

Responsibility In Normandie Fire Is Fixed

Carelessness, Poor Supervision and Lack of Precaution Cited

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Washington, May 22.—(P)—The senate naval committee has prepared a tentative report holding confusion of command partly responsible for the Normandie fire and recommending creation of an Office of Inspector General of the Navy to prevent any future mix-ups.

Carelessness, poor supervision and lack of precautions also contributed to the fire and capsizing of the Normandie, said the report which is now awaiting final committee approval. It declared that while sabotage played no part in the incident, there was a lack of adequate safeguards against subversive activity.

The navy disclosed last night that preliminary salvage work had been started on the Normandie, which was being converted into the troopship Lafayette when it burned and turned over February 9. It will be at least a year before the vessel is raised.

The senate committee said that the direct cause of the fire was carelessness in the use of an oxy-acetylene torch and attributed its quick spread to the disorder resulting from the rush nature of the conversion.

The report contained a finding (Turn to Page Thirteen)

TWO RESCUED FROM THE ALLEGHENY RIVER

Aspinwall, May 22.—(P)—James Meyers, 35, Homewood and Peter Weber, of Aspinwall, were rescued from the Allegheny river here last night after their outboard motorboat overturned.

William Ducey, a soldier on guard duty at the Ross Pumping Station, towed Meyers to shore with the aid of a long pole. Weber, clinging to the overturned boat and was brought ashore by members of the Brilliant Boat Club.

Preparations are being made for a big send-off for the group of Warren county men who will leave early Monday for final physical examination and possible induction into the U. S. armed forces, it was stated today by members of the committee in charge.

It is hoped to have at least one band on hand for the occasion and a large crowd of citizens of the borough and county is expected at the Pennsylvania Railroad depot for the farewell.

Under a plan adopted, each of the departing men will be presented with a carton of cigarettes. Also, each of the selectees will be given a postal card addressed to the Times-Mirror. When he goes to his training camp, the selectee will mail this card and upon its receipt here, will be sent the Times-Mirror for a three-month period.

The group which leaves on Monday includes six from Local Board No. 1 and 22 from Local Board No. 2.

Following is a revised list of those leaving Monday:
From Local Board No. 1: John L. Crowley, Richard H. Moll, Thomas Vetric, Walter L. Whaley and William C. Irons, of Warren; (Turn to Page Thirteen)

PROTEST IS REJECTED IN BERLIN NOTE

Commanders of all Military Zones Ordered to Remain at Their Posts During Crisis

PREPARING MANIFESTO

BULLETIN
Mexico City, May 22.—(P)—The newspaper La Prensa reported today from Havana that the Mexican tanker Faja De Oro had been torpedoed off Cuba, burst into flames, and that most of her crew were lost.

Mexico City, May 22.—(P)—Mexico hung precariously on the verge of an outright declaration of war against the Axis powers today following rejection by Berlin of her protest against the sinking of a Mexican tanker off the Florida coast last week.

While the country awaited a statement from President Manuel Avila Camacho that was expected to decide the issue, the general tenor of the situation was heightened by reports that two more Mexican ships had been torpedoed.

A highly-placed an usually reliable source said the president already was preparing a manifesto asking congress to declare war.

At the same time, a former president, General Lazaro Cardenas, commander of the west coast defense zone and probable choice for supreme commander of Mexico's armed forces in event of war, sped to the capital by plane "to receive my orders from the president."

Orders were issued to the commanders of all other military zones directing them to remain at their posts, and the chief of the general staff announced tersely that "the army is prepared."

The foreign office announcement disclosing that Germany had rejected Mexico's demands for reparation for the sinking of the tanker Federico Del Llano said Berlin flatly declined even to receive the note of protest.

The protest had been submitted through the Swedish government, Mexico having severed relations with Japan, Italy and Germany last December following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

Mexican gave vent yesterday to their feelings over the sinking of the Federico Del Llano when 6,000 persons gathered at the international bridge at Nuevo Laredo as the 22 survivors of the ship crossed into Mexico from the United States with the body of one of the 14 killed. Two thousand children tossed flowers in their path.

Unwarranted Pay Increases Are Opposed

Washington, May 22.—(P)—President Roosevelt declared today that the government would do everything it could to prevent what he termed unwarranted pay increases by private plants.

A half dozen steps might be taken, the president said, but he did not enumerate any of them to his press conference.

He remarked that efforts would be quick spread to the disorder resulting from the rush nature of the conversion.

The report contained a finding (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Two Killed In Falls At RCA

New York, May 22.—(P)—Within 3½ hours, a man and a woman plunged to death yesterday from upper floors of the RCA building, 70-story skyscraper in Rockefeller plaza.

Police said the woman, identified as Mrs. Jean Haskell, 30, of Bronxville, N. Y., mother of a three-month-old infant, leaped at 4 p. m. from the cocktail lounge terrace on the 65th floor, her body landing on an eleventh floor offset. They said she left a note to her husband saying, "I'm nervous and can't go on."

The body of a man whom police identified as William Litrodt, 36, New York City, an instructor of agents for the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, was found on a sixth floor extension on the other side of the building at 7:30. Police listed the woman's death as suicide, but said no one saw Litrodt fall.

Prinz Eugen Is Based At Kiel

London, May 22.—(P)—The damaged German cruiser Prinz Eugen has arrived at Kiel, it was learned today.

The air ministry announced four days ago that British planes had scored two definite torpedo hits and one probably hit on the 10,000-ton cruiser off southern Norway the night of May 17.

The Prinz Eugen had been at Tromsø under repair after a previous British attack.

Arrival at Kiel, big German naval base, indicates that for the second time the cruiser had run a sea blockade to a German port. The vessel was with the battleships Scharnhorst and Gneisenau in the dash through the English channel from Brest.

The Scharnhorst is reported also to be undergoing repairs, as is the 6,000-ton cruiser Nürnberg.

German warships believed still at Tromsø include the 35,000-ton battleship Tirpitz, sister ship of the Bismarck, the Hipper, sister ship of the Prinz Eugen, and the 10,000-ton pocket battleship Luetzow.

The battleship Gneisenau is at Baltic port and the cruiser Seydlitz is at Bremen.

Mental Exam To Be Given Here Sunday

According to word received here this afternoon, Capt. E. J. St. Jacques, president of the Aviation Cadet Examining Board at Erie, will be at the Warren Airport on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to give mental examinations to 18 members of the local Civilian Pilot Training flight class.

This action is being taken as a result of the announcement to the members of the class that all must be enlisted in the army by June 1st.

The members of the flight class are to report at the airport at two o'clock Sunday to make preliminary arrangements for the examination.

The fact that the mental examination is to be given here Sunday eliminates the necessity for a two-day trip to Erie, it was stated. The young men will go to Erie sometime next week for their physical examinations.

Any of those in the class who wish further information concerning the examinations and enlistment in the army or aviation cadets should contact H. D. Baker, coordinator of the C. P. T. program, at his office, Third avenue.

Mr. Baker pointed out today that it is necessary for all members of the present C. P. T. flight class to be present on Sunday.

Interesting Paper Of American Forces In Iceland Received

The Times-Mirror has just received a copy of "The White Falcon," weekly newspaper of the American forces in Iceland, which is very interesting and contains much information concerning the activities of the American soldiers abroad.

The paper, which is dated Saturday, April 25, was sent here by Pvt. Burdett L. Nelson, who is stationed in Iceland.

In addition to the news of the activities of the soldiers in Iceland, the paper has many other features, including summaries of world events, sports news, news pictures and lessons in the Icelandic language.

More than 100 war plants have adopted Management-Labor production drives, including a study of plant efficiency, establishment of suggestion boxes, bulletin boards and production scoreboards, building of morale and recognition of achievement as parts of their programs.

Safety Is Theme of Meeting Of Bell Telephone Employees

Safety on the job and in the home was discussed Wednesday evening, May 20, at a dinner and safety rally for Bell Telephone Company workers, held in the Philomel Club, 213 Fourth avenue. About sixty-five attended.

A feature of the rally was the enrollment of Carl H. Matson, a telephone installer, 717 West Fifth avenue, Warren, in the Bell Company's 100,000 Mile Club, an organization which is contributing greatly to highway safety. Awards were presented to a group of club members who had added another year—1941—to their long safe-driving records.

Carl H. Matson

Membership in the 100,000 Mile Club is restricted to employees who have driven company vehicles safely for at least ten years. Throughout the state nearly 800 Bell employees have qualified. Members of the club present at the rally have covered more than 1,360,000 miles, driving in all kinds of weather, without being responsible for an accident.

J. Frank Cox, vice president and general manager of the Bell Telephone Company, presented a membership certificate and gold-stamped wallet to Mr. Matson. He also gave special awards to the other club members who had extended their safety records. Mr. Cox spoke on the company's general accident prevention program.

Julius A. Krause, district plant superintendent, was chairman of the meeting and discussed the safety performance of Bell employees in this section. Brief addresses, all dealing with specific phases of the safety program, were made by David R. Ingalls, general plant manager; Clarence E. Fay, division plant superintendent; and by Charles W. Wise, division construction superintendent. Others present included Horace M. Stevenson, district manager; Ulton G. Hodgins, district traffic superintendent; and Charles H. Springer, assistant manager at Warren. Mr. Springer is a 100,000 Mile Club member and has a record of eleven years of safe driving.

Included among the 100,000 Mile Club members present at the rally are the number of years, up to December 31, 1941, each has been driving safely were:

Fourteen years—George N. Brittain, 1007 Conewango avenue, Warren; Melvin W. McKisson, Elm street, Tonesta; Guy F. Painter, Orange street extension, Oil City; Frank L. Reese, 224 Main avenue, Warren; and Joseph C. Underwood, 17 Prospect street, Warren.

Twelve years—John L. Dolan, 861 West Eighth street, Erie, and Thomas W. Johnson, R. D. 1, Claridon.

Eleven years—Frank H. Ashbaugh, R. D. 1, Warren; Don C. Andrew, 22 N. Carver street, Warren.

Ten years—William J. Welsh, 139 Phillips street, Warren.

present to receive prizes from the Cleveland tournament.

MADE REPORT

In the item in Tuesday's Times-Mirror concerning the accident which occurred Monday in Wayne street, when Frank Viola, Jr., was struck by a car driven by David Deardorff, Jackson avenue, it was stated that the driver had not reported the mishap to local police. However, a report had been made immediately following the accident, but the officer on duty when the information was secured had not been informed of the fact.

REGISTRATION DAY

The fourth and next to last registration day for bicyclists will be held tomorrow at borough police headquarters, it was announced today. There are an estimated thousand bicycles which still are not licensed, and police ask cooperation of owners in tomorrow's effort to greatly cut down this number. It is probable that next week's final registration will be held on Friday, but details will be known and printed in Monday's issue of the Times-Mirror.

DISTRICT SESSIONS

A number from Warren will attend the session of the S. F. of A. district convention in Erie on Sunday. Included will be the district treasurer, Gust O. Carlson; the supreme deputy, Mrs. Harry Bell; delegates, Ned Johnson and Mrs. Hulda Strom; the immediate past president, Burton J. Bell, of Atlanta, Ga., formerly of Warren.

ON TWO WHEELS

Bicycle riders should remember that unless a special day is fixed next week, tomorrow will be the last opportunity to register bikes at the police station to comply with a recently-adopted ordinance.

It is interesting to note that already a thousand bicycles have been registered in the borough with prospects that the figure will mount as rapidly as prospective owners may purchase them.

The curtailment of automobiles, tires and gasoline has increased the number of bicycles in use in this country by more than a million since 1940, the National Safety Council reports. A poll of forty cities just completed by the Council showed bike registrations up 18 per cent. Cleveland, for example, had 44,000 bikes in 1940. Now it has 62,000. Miami, Fla., jumped from 2,000 to 14,000. Oklahoma City 3,000 to 10,000.

While the bicycle has grown into long pants, its riders still look upon it more as a toy than a vehicle.
Bicyclists apparently are slow to realize that they can get into the same kind of trouble on two wheels or four, and that the bike is a vehicle subject to virtually the same traffic laws as autos.

Taking the bicycle out of the juvenile class, the War Production Board has ordered that none but full-sized models shall be manufactured during May and June. Dealers in Chicago report that bicycle sales are four times as great as last year.

This revived model of transportation is putting a premium on people with push. If you hear someone talk now about going around a corner on two wheels, you may be pretty sure he means he was riding a bicycle.

News of the appointment of Prof. Philip M. Benjamin, Warren High School graduate, to the important position of librarian of the Reis Library at Allegheny College, as announced by President William Tolley Wednesday evening, was learned with genuine pride by his many friends in this community.

There still aren't enough nurses to go around for Army and Navy, so Red Cross will start a two weeks' recruiting drive on May 25, aimed to sign up 75,000 of the 100,000 eligible trained nurses who are single, without family responsibilities, and under forty years of age.

Those responsible for the interesting anniversary program so thoroughly enjoyed by the congregation of the First Lutheran church are deserving of high praise for the success of the event.

Many a Warren citizen has discovered if you want to make anything out of gardens you just have to get out and dig.

These are the days when the fellow without a lot of push has a hard time keeping his lawn mowed.

Walk to church Sunday. You'll be surprised how much you'll enjoy the service after the exercise.

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

"COVET EARNESTLY THE BEST"

H. H. Barr, Retired Methodist Minister, Warren

First Cor. 12:31—The word covet is used in the sense of zeal which means to glow like molten metal. All passive attitudes must be forsaken if the best is to be obtained.

The best will not come to us on golden trays. The best will require effort. Diamonds are found where great heat and pressure have played their parts in making the gems. Pearls are found in ocean depths. The mollusk producing the pearl created it through pain and the pearl diver risked his life to secure it. Gold and silver lie in the deep strata of mother earth and it costs many times their actual worth to secure these precious metals.

Jesus taught that doors will open when men knock and that men find when they seek.

It is because it requires effort to secure the best that so many are content with the second best in life. To have the best in the physical body there must be exercise, self denial, rest and severe physical discipline. In the mental realm the best will only come to those who pay the price in mental discipline. In the realm of the spirit the best is obtainable. God has made provision to supply man's every spiritual aspiration if only man will pay the price. The best will enrich the life of those who seek it. The best has enduring quality. The best will bless other lives through those who possess the best. In the quest for the best hindrances and impossibilities must not be allowed to frustrate the seeker. He must covet so earnestly the best that nothing short of the best will satisfy.

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, shown to me.—Pope.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Oddly enough, Washington, as a city, doesn't pay much attention to house and senatorial elections until the votes are in.

Ask a hundred persons how this race or that is going, before it's run, and unless the person questioned has some particular affinity for the state or district under discussion, you will only get a blank look or raised eyebrows.

There are, however, exceptions —and the senatorial race coming up in Texas is A-1 this year.
There are good reasons why.

THE three leading candidates are all two-term governors.
The oldest living politician here can't remember when that ever happened before. In the second place, one of the candidates is incumbent Sen. W. Lee (Pawnee-the-biscuits-Pappy) O'Daniel, who was considered pretty much of an amateur politician until he trumped on the Administrationsponsored Rep. Lyndon Johnson and much publicized Rep. Martin Dies in the election that seated him in the upper house.

His opposition in the coming election is composed of former Gov. Dan Moody, who has been in the political thick of things in Texas ever since the forced abdication of the Fergusons, Ma and Pa; and former Gov. James V.
Allred, the Wichita Falls attorney, who not only made his political mark very young in life, but who has stepped out of a lifetime job as federal district judge to make this race.

There is another factor. In the last senatorial campaign, the Administration threw its weight behind young Johnson. Apparently a certain sector of Texas voters resented this Administration interference in local politics. In spite of that, there is some possibility the Administration may jump in again.

I'm not going to try to anticipate the administration action, but if it does get into the picture, it won't be behind Senator O'Daniel. The Senate stands on dignity, precedent, tradition and whatnot.
Freshman Senator O'Daniel paid little attention to them. In fact, some observers say that not since the late Huey Long took his seat has any incoming senator paid so little attention to the traditional methods of the Senate. Don't ask me if that is good or bad—but I do know that it hasn't made the senator the most popular freshman to come into the north wing of Congress.

On the other hand, I don't think that this time any oldtimers in the Senate will make the mistake of underestimating O'Dan-iel's vote-getting powers. Apparently, Washington's popular young Lyndon Johnson (now in the Navy as a Lieutenant-commander) and nationally-publicized Martin Dies have had enough anyway. It would be hard to find two young men with such political springboards who would shy away from a senatorial race.

Some ancient and impartial observers here are grinning over the Texas senatorial picture. Their guess is that "Pappy" O'Daniel has done it again. Allred and Moody, they say, will split the opposition. That's the aim of every candidate, as well as every general.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—It was Tommy Tucker time at the Essex House: so I dropped around for a chat with the North Dakota representative of the Tucker tribe. The boys were in the midst of a short-wave broadcast to Brazil when I got there, but the crowd kept right on dancing.
Among the numbers Tommy's band played for the Brazilians was "I Threw A Kiss In The Ocean," and as it was wafted over the ocean it must have sounded to the South American listeners as the same song does to you on Tommy Tucker's recording.

THE voices in this recording seem to be coming from across the water. They had a lot of trouble making it sound like that.
First they took one mike into another room and let the voices sing from there. It didn't work.
Next they put a paddlewheel in a tub of water. That didn't sound too good. The engineer finally ran the wires into the basement and from there up into the attic and back again several times. It lent the enchantment of watery distance when the voices came in. That's what Tommy Tucker wanted.

Tommy Tucker himself is from Souris, N. D. Population 248. He's a Phi Beta Kappa. In college he never played with a college band, but while an undergraduate he did play piano with professional bands. That helped pay his way through the U. of N. D.

Although he was born in North Dakota, he went to North Carolina to find a wife. She was Virgina Dare Miller. When they're in New York they keep an apartment. And Dare does the cooking. "You get tired of hotel and restaurant food," says Tommy.

No doubt it's because he can't forget that home cooking he found in North Carolina.

The band's signature is "I Love
You," a number Tommy wrote while under the influence of a Tybee beach setting, down in Savannah. It is a beauty. The vocal is sung by the Voices Three, meaning Amy Arnell, Don Brown, and Kerwin Somerville. You'd never have thought anything was the matter with Miss Arnell when I was there, but an hour after I left she was rushed to a N. Y. hospital for an emergency appendectomy. She's doing fine.

AMY ARNELL takes her career very seriously. She's from Portsmouth, Va. She spends $7.50 a day for special instruction. Don Brown is what the boys call "Our romantic baritone." He gets mad when they describe him that way.
Don has done practically everything. He used to work on a railroad. He used to play semi-pro football.

Pretty soon the band will lose its bass player, Al Iossi. He goes into the army. The boys will be sorry to see Al go, in a way. He's the band paymaster.

I mention this because I thought you'd want to know these things about Tommy Tucker, and Amy Arnell, and Don Brown, and Al Iossi and the others the next time you click on a radio and hear the announcer say, "It's Tommy Tucker Time."

Sweet Corn Fine Crop For Victory Gardens

The one and only good reason for not growing sweet corn in the Victory garden is because the garden is too small. Otherwise sweet corn is the most desirable of vegetables for the home garden.

This is true because sweet corn is always best when eaten immediately after harvesting, because the quality and flavor deteriorate rapidly after the ears are pulled from the plants. The higher the temperature, the greater the deterioration.
Isn't this a sufficient reason why there should be a corn patch in every vegetable garden?

A patch of six rows, each 15 feet long, need not occupy more than a 15 foot square. In normal seasons, planted to quality strains, it should yield 120 to 180 ears.

Corn will grow in any well-worked soil but the best corn requires the best soil. Apply a balanced plant food at the rate of 4 pounds to 100 square feet, raked into the top soil before sowing corn.
Well-drained, warm soil is to this vegetable's taste with constant moderate moisture. It does not like waterlogged soil.

Corn is a warm weather crop. In cold, wet springs there is often difficulty with seed rotting after it is sown and it has to be replanted.
It is wisest to be in no great hurry to get corn planted, as greater speed of growth will be made in warm days and nights.

The time-honored system of planting corn was in hills, three or four stalks to a hill, the hills about three feet apart each way. With the smaller growing corn planting in rows, sowing at the rate of five or six kernels to the foot, planted about 2 inches deep to insure plenty of plants and then thinning them to 8 inches apart in the row is a better plan and produces more ears in a small garden.

Corn seeds to be hilled up because of the auxiliary roots that start above the surface of the soil at the lower joints which nature provides for the anchoring of the plant. Hilling up encourages the formation of these roots and enables them to take hold of the soil more quickly and firmly.

Planting corn in squares of at least four rows so the pollen will get the freest possible distribution and produce the fullest ears with the most kernels on the cob is the best plan. Whichever way the wind blows pollen will be blown through the square patch. Each silk must have its pollen to produce a kernel.

Corn responds to hoeing more quickly than most other vegetables and the combination of warm weather, a fair amount of moisture and good hoeing sends it spinning.

Legion Poppy Sale Slated For Saturday

Bright red American Legion poppies which "bloom" annually as memorials to the World War dead and for the benefit of the "living dead" in hospitals, will appear on the streets of Warren tomorrow under the auspices of Chief Cornplanter Post of the American Legion, it was announced by Post Commander W. I. Walker.

The local sale is in conjunction with similar drives in practically every city and town in the country held annually during May, during which time millions of real Americans will wear poppies in the making of which, the American Legion employs only disabled veterans who draw no Government compensation.

"While thinking of the men who lost their lives in the War," Commander Walker said, "Our Thoughts naturally go to the other thousands who did not die, but returned with shattered bodies and minds to face years of suffering and distress. When the citizens of Warren buy a poppy from American Legionnaires and members of the Auxiliary, authorized to sell them, they will be contributing something to the aid of these disabled."

"American Legion poppies which are sold exclusively by Legionnaires and members of the Legion Auxiliary, are made only in Government hospitals by disabled men without any other source of revenue."

Each Legion poppy has a story of its own. Each is made by hand. Some patients make as few as fifty a year, others are able to turn out a thousand or more. Poppies are made at the Government Hospitals at Aspinwall, Pa.; Coatesville, Pa.; Perry Point, Md.; Soldiers and Sailors Home, Erie, Pa.; The Panna State Sanatorium at Mt. Alto, Pa.; and the Naval Hospital, Philadelphia.

Our slogan this year again is "REMEMBER THE DEAD BY HELPING THE LIVING."

Nearly two-thirds of automobile deaths occur on rural highways outside cities.

TO BURNSIDE

The Allegheny Hiking Club will have an unusual treat next Sunday when their trip will be in the Dunn Run vicinity on the Allegheny River. The club has been invited to finish their hike with a picnic at "Burnside", the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Beck. Members are asked to bring their own pocket lunch and sugar, but a committee will furnish coffee and cream.

As there will be no hike on the following Sunday because of the Memorial Day weekend, all members are cordially invited to turn out this Sunday for the club's 87th trip, which may possibly be the last trip of this season, unless the weather should remain cool during the month of June.

Posters Are Being Shown At Bank Here

The safety posters in the Warren National Bank lobby this week are attracting unusual attention, and will be on display for the remainder of the week. These colorful and effective posters were prepared by students of Warren High School and Beatty School, after giving much study to the rules and practice of safety in a contest sponsored by the local organization of the United Commercial Travelers cooperating with the Warren County Motor Club. The posters will enter a state contest at the grand council session of the U. C. T. to be held at New Castle, on June 12th, and in a National contest at Columbus, Ohio, on June 23rd.

This excellent work of local art students reflects great credit to their instructor, Miss Hildegarde Edwards. Judging was done by Elton W. Davis and Holger Sorenson, who awarded the prizes as follows:

Warren High School winners: 1st, Robert Hedberg; 2nd, Calvin Lawson; 3rd, Ray Scalise; Honorable Mention, Mary Haskin and June Bartsch. Albert Hoffman, Dorothy Tannler, Ned Pascuzzo, Glen Peterson.

Beatty School: 1st, Ina Carlson; 2nd, Kenneth Churchill; Honorable Mention, Joyce Reed, Dorothy Munch.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—You've all heard about the unhappy symphony fiddler—the one who fiddled morosely because he just didn't like music?

Henry Hathaway's reputation as a movie director is built largely on outdoor movies—the kind of hard-riding, hard-shooting adventure stuff that built the picture business. Henry Hathaway just doesn't like the great outdoors.

"Sun," he said. "It burns your nose."

"Wind," he said. "It gets in your hair. You can't see. You can't shoot."

"Horses," he said. "I hate 'em. 'Rain' Oh, rain's not so bad. I can shoot in the rain, and have."

MAYBE Henry Hathaway doesn't like this all the time. He was indoors, and "Ten Gentlemen from West Point" was with him.

There had been night after night of shooting, and lost sleep. Big Laird Cregar was tired, hoping for at least a week's rest before starting another of the several pictures awaiting him—and he was wondering when he could sandwich in time for an operation. John Sutton was tired, and all he was looking forward to was another picture, starting right away. John Shepperd was tired, too—but as far as "Ten Gentlemen from West Point" was concerned, he was through. He had just died, wounded fatally in the big battle with the Indians, the big outdoor battle directed by Henry Hathaway, the outdoor director who doesn't like guns, either.

THE Cregar popularity is violating all the rules. They said that about Charles Laughton and Edward Arnold, who are merely portly by contrast with the Pennsylvania behemoth. What niche could such a monstrously huge actor find in pictures? Well, he has "The Black Swan" (in which he'll play the pirate Sir Henry Morgan) and "Les Misérables" (he'll be Javert) waiting for him—and they are only two of the half dozen pictures on his schedule.

Cregar can be pardoned if, sometimes, he looks like the cat who just stole the cream. He enjoyed that "back home and rich" feeling—sweetest in an actor's experience—over at RKO and Paramount where, earlier he had tried vainly for a look-in. When 20th loaned him, he got star treatment.

Monty Woolley is back-home-and-rich these days, too. Monty was rejected for a bit role in "Suez" four years ago, when he was just "the beard" playing doctors and scientists. The makers of "Suez" are starting him in "The Pied Piper."

Rita Hayworth knows about it, too. I suspect Zanuck would give a million for her contract now—for a girl the studio dropped after she played bits in "Dante's Inferno" and a Jane Withers picture. They pay plenty now when they borrow her for "Blood and Sand," "Tales of Manhattan," or "My Gal Sal."

Philomel Members Anticipate Recital

Members of the Philomel Club are looking forward with keen anticipation to the voice recital to be given at the clubhouse next Wednesday evening as the concluding event of a very successful golden jubilee anniversary.

On that occasion the club will present to the public an old friend of the club, Glenn Drake, well known Chicago tenor and teacher. With him will appear one of his pupils, Miss Loretta Downing, soprano, who has never been heard publicly in Warren but made many friends here two years ago during a brief visit at the home of Mrs. Allie Russell, president of the Philomel Club. The accompanist of the evening will be Miss Lillian Rohde, formerly of Ridgway.

Mr. Drake will arrive Sunday and the young ladies on Monday, all to be guests at the Russell home, Pennsylvania avenue, east.

Community Council PTA Names Officers

Mrs. S. E. Saylor was chosen president of the Warren Community Council P. T. A. at the annual meeting held Wednesday afternoon at the Glade Camp at Big Bend. Others chosen were: First vice president, Mrs. Walter Mathyer; second vice president, Mrs. Regis Geitner; secretary, Mrs. Samuel Chesnut; treasurer, Mrs. A. Dunham.

Mrs. Guy McCloskey, retiring president, gave two readings and expressed her appreciation and thanks for the cooperation extended her in her two-year administration. Her successor, Mrs. Saylor, asked for the continued support of all the membership.

A report on the Clare Tree Major plays showed a most satisfactory season. Mrs. James Richards and Mrs. Regis Geitner were named as a committee to purchase a book for the P. T. A. shelf at the Warren Public Library.

Zontians Elect New Slate Of Officers

Fifteen members of the Warren Zonta Club gathered in the private dining room of the Blue and White Restaurant on Thursday afternoon to enjoy luncheon and elect officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Jessie Davidson was chosen president. With her, Mary Corah as vice president; Miss Ann Snyder, secretary; Mrs. Marjorie Dougherty, treasurer. The president appointed as directors for two years Miss Wilda Peel, Mrs. Althea N. Correll, Miss Snyder and Mrs. Corah.

The retiring president, Mrs. Nancy Ellen Parvin, was named as the club's delegate to the international convention to be held at Toronto.

A discussion of plans for the summer months' program occupied the remainder of the session.

Presbyterian Church Plans Celebration

The session of the First Presbyterian church, at a special meeting Wednesday evening, adopted a plan for the observance of the 120th anniversary of the church by the local congregation in mid-September.

It is proposed that while no elaborate celebration is contemplated such as the centennial in 1922, chief phases of the life and work of the local church will be noted in a week of special events, including music and worship, Christian education, youth activities, world service through national and world missions and evangelization, with the final service looking forward to the goals for the church in the immediate and more distant future.

The theme will be martial, with full recognition of the place of the church and religion with the nation at war.

The following general committee to carry out the 120th anniversary celebration was appointed by the Rev. Harold C. Warren: Harold S. Hampson, Adam H. Yerg, Donald McComas, Harold L. Banghart and Franklin R. Hoff.

Bible Class Enjoys Pleading Picnic At Fine Borough Park

J. H. West, speaking to members of the Jefferson Men's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian church at their picnic at Washington Park Tuesday evening, expressed publicly a tribute that many have silently felt.

He urged that those who enjoy the beauty and convenience of this ideal picnic spot keep in mind the vision, labor and sacrifice of the late Mrs. S. E. Walker and her co-workers who sponsored its establishment, little knowing how vital a part it would play in community recreation in a time of war-restricted travel.

The outing was very largely attended, both President A. H. Yerg and the class dean, H. S. Hampson, expressing gratification over the number on hand. Harold L. Banghart, superintendent, and Ralph E. Sires, assistant, told of events contemplated for the near future and greetings were brought by Pastor Harold C. Warren.

Onion Lacks Nutrition, But Flavor Makes It Necessary

While vitamin tables rate the onion low in vitamins, it is one of the most important crops for the Victory Garden. The reason for its importance of course is its flavor. For centuries, vegetables of this family have been used throughout the world to flavor both cooked dishes and raw salads.

In Great Britain last year onions were so scarce that they were used as prizes in raffles. Onion seed is selling this spring for many times its cost a year ago, owing to a shortage in this country. But amateurs have best success with onion sets, which are plentiful and reasonably priced.

Onion sets are small onions grown last year in crowded rows, so their development was arrested. Stored over winter, they are planted this year to produce green onions or mature, whichever you wish, in much shorter time than seed will do it. If you want green onions, use large sets planted deeply; for mature onions, use small sets, not so deep. To introduce the onion flavor into salads and cooked dishes in a more subtle way than by the outright use of onions, the amateur gardener may grow chives and leeks.

Chives are perennial, and besides producing tubular leaves which add just the right accent to bowl salad and cottage cheese, they bear lovely mauve blossoms. You can start them from seeds, or by dividing the roots of established plants, and they will make a most attractive border for a garden path, living many years.

Leeks are always cooked, and many esteem them superior to onions in a stew. They are grown from seed, and should be transplanted for best results. The English gardeners pride themselves on exhibition leeks which may be grown in this manner. When the plants are about as thick as a lead pencil lift them, and set each one in a hole made with a dibber. Do not fill the hole, but merely cover the roots at the bottom with earth and let the hole fill naturally with washed earth. In rich soil the leeks will grow to a diameter of an inch or more.

If you want to accumulate a stock of garlic, assuming your consumption of this article is larger than the average, you can do it by planting the small garlic cloves. Shallots, another form of the onion used chiefly for cooking and having a mild flavor, are grown from sets which may be planted in the fall where the winters are mild, and in the spring in colder states.

Egyptian or perennial onions are true perennials, living many years in cold weather states. They are grown from sets planted in the fall and produce green onions as soon as the ground thaws out in the spring.

Boost Sales Of Stamps In Schools Here

In the Warren borough schools during the past four weeks, a total of $4,008.49 was spent by pupils for war savings stamps and bonds, it was reported today by Superintendent John G. Rossman.

The week of April 24 was the best of the last four, $1,387.15 having been spent for stamps and bonds in the nine schools. Other weekly amounts were: May 1, $887.44; May 8, $895.50; May 15, $885.40.

Beat school, with the second largest enrollment in the borough, led the way in individual purchases every week except that of May 8, when Jefferson school took top honors.

Total amounts from each of the schools during the four-week period are as follows: High school, $754.60; Beaty, $1,175.25; East, $136.80; Home, $156.30; Jefferson, $713.04; Lacy, $184.70; McClintock, $179.85; Seneca, $275.70; South, $432.15.

In connection with the sales of war stamps and bonds in the schools, the students this week will receive a pledge which they will be asked to sign.

The pledge is as follows:

"To Every Soldier, Sailor and Marine Who Is Fighting for My Country:

"For you there can be no rest. For me there should be no vacation from the part I can play to help win the war. I therefore solemnly promise to continue to buy

United States War Savings Stamps and Bonds to the limit of my ability, throughout my vacation and until our Victory is won."

Purpose of the pledge, which is to be signed in the presence of a witness, is to stress the importance for continued purchases of stamps and bonds through the summer months by students, not only here, but throughout the nation, it was stated.

DETECTIVE TO GET HEARING

Johnstown, May 21.—(P)—Police Chief A. J. McDevitt ordered Byron Petriken, suspended detective captain, to appear before city council Friday on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer and misappropriation of police pension funds.

McDevitt said Patrolman Edmund Boland, trustee of the pension fund, reported $722 was unaccounted for. Petriken was suspended Feb. 18.

UNFAIR TO LOVE By Watkins E. Wright

Chapter Eight

Belle Of The Ball

RED DEMILLE reached Kathleen's side, as Joe hurried off. "Here I am back again, like the proverbial bad penny!" he said. "You draw me like a magnet."

"You do say nice things to a girl," Kathleen said. "But don't think I fall for it—even if I am a rustic girl in a rural setting."

"The setting may be more or less rural," said Fred. "But there's nothing rustic about you, my child."

"That," smiled Kathleen, "is the best thing you've said to me."

"And now," Fred said, as they moved in and out among the other dancers, "I wonder if you'd be a favor."

"Of course!"

"I've got to find some furniture for my pre-war Civil War—variety," Fred explained. "For the day I told you about."

"You mean 'Goodbye, Honey'?"

"Yes, that one. . . . I thought you'd know where we could find some. How about driving out to the plantations with me, and having a look?"

"I'd be glad to," said Kathleen eagerly. "I've got a few pieces myself that you're welcome to, and I know a lot of folks in the country near Linville who have a lot of stuff stored in their attics."

"Splendid!" said Fred. "Shall we make the trip tomorrow? Sunday's a good day for me. The day after next week is a familiar one, and it's all set."

"Tomorrow will be all right with me. Morning or afternoon?"

"Let's make it in the afternoon, and then we'll stop off at some dining spot for dinner."

"That'll be fun!" said Kathleen. "But don't feel you've got to buy me dinner for helping you find furniture."

"I'm asking you to have dinner with me," said Fred, "because you're things to me—make me feel young again. And that, my child, is something."

"Someone else cut in then. Then another man. On and on. . . .

Handsome Couple

AND as Kathleen danced with each of them she only half heard what they were talking about. She was thinking of the drive out into the country with Fred Demille, thinking of the things she was going to say to him.

"Why so silent, honey?" her partner asked.

"Thinking!" said Kathleen.

"About me?"

"Of course," he lied.

"Maybe I've got a chance with you after all," said the young man, overwhelmed.

"Maybe," said Kathleen.

More cutting in—more partners. And then another local boy danced off with her.

Joe's going for actresses in a big way," he said. He nodded toward where Joe was leading Ruby Howard out for a dance. "And with the leading lady, too! He's certainly hitting high!"

Kathleen looked. And she got a glimpse of Joe smiling down into Ruby Howard's upturned face, the all youthful enthusiasm—and Ruby with wide, interested eyes.

"See 'em?"

"Yes, they make a handsome couple."

"Not afraid?"

"Of what?"

"That actress—she might steal you, you know."

"Certainly I'm not afraid of any such thing! Don't be silly, I'm glad Joe ought to show interest in someone besides me."

Her partner gave her a quick look—a puzzled look. And then he settled down to the business of dancing.

It was when they were passing close beside Joe and Ruby that Kathleen heard their conversation.

"Then it's all arranged," Ruby was saying. "You'll bring the manuscript of the play up to my room at the Inn—and read it to me."

"You bet I will," said Joe. "And it's darned swell of you to be willing to hear it."

"Nonsense!" Ruby exclaimed. "It sounds just like what I've been searching for."

"Well, I hope it is," said Joe. "It's pretty crude in spots—but I'll get to work on it. You've given me incentive."

"Have you?" Ruby's voice was soft, almost affectionate. "I'm soft. Who knows but what we've discovered inspiration in each other."

Joe looked up and saw Kathleen.

"Hello, Toots!" he said.

"Hello!" she called back—hating being addressed by that silly name.

Ruby smiled at her. "Mr. Neely's been a goodsend!" she said.

"Really?" said Kathleen. "How sweet."

Ruby then turned back to Joe. She began to talk to him as though they had known each other since the beginning of time. Kathleen tried to hear what she was saying. But she couldn't.

The Savor Gone

SHE threw back her head and smiled at the young man who was dancing with her. But the smile was forced. She didn't feel at all like smiling. She kept thinking about Joe being alone with Ruby Howard—reading to the actress the play he had read to her so often. And she couldn't save her understanding why the picture Joe and Ruby made should annoy her as it did. But it did annoy her.

"Who knows?" Ruby had said to him. "But that was discovered inspiration in each other."

"Darn!" she said with considerable feeling.

"What's the matter?" her partner asked.

"Just thinking out loud," Kathleen said.

And they danced on and on.

But now there wasn't very much lightness in the dancing, so far as Kathleen was concerned. She was even glad when it was all over, and everyone was telling Mrs. Buxton what a huge success the reception had been, and congratulating her upon her cleverness in planning and carrying things out.

"Ready to go?" said Fred.

"Yes," Kathleen replied.

"I'm all in," Fred said later, when they were in his car. "Can't keep the late hours I used to keep. Got to have my eight hours sleep."

"Dancing is tiresome if you keep it up too long," said Kathleen, oddly listless.

"Fred had little more to say. He was weary. That was easy to see. All the sparkle had gone out of him. And Kathleen felt a surge of disappointment. She had thought that there might be an opportunity to talk acting to Fred on the way home—but she now decided not to mention the matter.

"There wouldn't be any use, anyway—with Fred acting as though he might fall asleep at the wheel any moment. She sank back against the upholstery and closed her eyes.

She hoped that her companion would become more wide awake as the early morning air blew upon them, that he would start talking to her.

But he didn't. And she decided to say nothing herself. They sped on in silence.

Motor Club Manager Warns Against Excessive Use of Gas

The following statement regarding the gasoline situation in this area was issued by the manager of the Warren County Motor Club this morning:

Since our area has been freed of gasoline rationing under the provisions of the War Production Board and the recommendation of Petroleum Coordinator Ralph K. Davis, there appears to be an imminent possibility that the motorists of the district so favored may go joy riding and put a burden on our refineries which will throw us back into the rationed area.

As you know, we were granted this concession because we are in an area where oil is produced and mined and claims were made that we could sustain ourselves on our own home products. Our refineries are not substantial, claiming that their tanks were all bulging with restocks of gasoline. Some of these refineries were able to keep their stock moved out because they were able to deliver by tank trucks to their distributors regularly.

When the border line for rationing was moved eastward from the Ohio line the twilight zone was abolished, thus allowing motorists from the rationed counties of these three states to merely cross over the border line and fill up without ration books.

No other owner wants to deny to another motorists the privileges he enjoys and no dealer wants to refuse the sale of gasoline if he has it, so, now, it becomes important to all of us that all motorists be duly and consistently warned that a free gasoline territory by no means carries with it, under present conditions, a passport for a free ride.

There is still urgent need for conserving tires and it must be remembered here too that "oil is ammunition." None but defense workers and those who need cars for strictly necessary driving should consider themselves in the X-card class. Our supply will depend upon the ability of the refineries of a small section of these three states to furnish what "we think we need." If we abuse the allowance all of us will pay the price of new and more drastic restrictions for the amount of unnecessary driving we do show the rate of wear on the rubber supply and we will have the guardian of that commodity demanding more drastic curtailment of passenger car use.

Sheffield To Have Sale Of Poppies Sat.

Sheffield, May 22—This year's annual Poppy Day will be Saturday, May 23rd. Mrs. W. V. Christman has been appointed chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary. Contributions received for the poppies are a principal source of support for the welfare work carried out by the Auxiliary among the disabled men and dependent families. Every man, woman, and child in town will be asked to wear a poppy, in honor of the men who have braved and gave their lives for us.

SCHOOL BANQUET . . . Attractive cards marked places for 105 faculty members and students at the annual banquet sponsored by the juniors of the Sheffield High School, having as their guests the senior class. The banquet was held in the American Legion Home and the dinner was served by the Auxiliary.

Taking part in the program were the following: Beryl Burlingame, Donald Lyle, L. O. Eisenhauer, C. S. Greenwood, Anthony Richvalsky, Paul Carlson, Helen Stenger, Leona Ralston, Mary Ann Christian, Teresa Fitzgerald, Natalie Owen and Sid Brong.

The general committee for the evening were Beryl Burlingame, Charles Norcross, Irene Solock, Paul Carlson, Nicholas Otto, Helen Stenger, Anne Louise Yutze, advisor, Miss Mary Richvalsky, Decorating committee, Virginia Plumett, Irene Donick, Violet Kierlin, Refreshment committee, Anne L. Yutze, Irene Solock, and Charles Norcross.

Program committee, Beryl Burlingame, Paul Carlson, Helen Stenger, Nick Otto.

Sugar Grove

Sugar Grove, May 19—The Sugar Grove P. T. A. sponsored an inner party for the members of the basketball teams in the home economics house Friday evening. Miss Kathryn Kessler and Otto Carlson, the coaches, and the other members of the faculty were also guests.

The long table, with covers for thirty-eight, was centered with a bouquet of white lilies, yellow tulips and yellow candles. The place and favors were clever figures in basketball suits, made and contributed by Mary Lou Anderson. Paul Carlberg acted as toastmaster with group singing and short talks given by Milton McLellan, Jan H. Frank and Otto Carlson. Ten mothers of the young people served the dinner with Miss Helen Abbott assisting in the dining rooms. Awards to the team will be given out later.

Mrs. Jesse Thompson was hostess to the W. S. C. S. Thursday afternoon. With Mrs. F. A. Schooner, president, and Mrs. Frank Johnson, conducted the devotions and Mrs. Hobart Sanders acted as program leader. Mrs. Traverse Stollberg presented the study book, several ladies who attended the convention at Panama reported and several readings were given by those present. The pledge to the church has been paid. The next meeting will be at Lander, June 10, in the form of a union meeting with Russell and Lander. Mrs. Barney Thompson will be the speaker. Mrs. Thompson was assisted by Mrs. Roy Briggs in serving the refreshments.

Miss Pollyanna Wright, of Franklin, and Walter Lynn Gilman, of Cherry Creek, N. Y., were united in marriage by Rev. O. Brainard, May 16th, at the Methodist parsonage. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elford, of Kennedy, N. Y. The latter is sister of the groom. The couple will reside in East Leon, N. Y.

Mrs. T. R. Sponser entertained the N. B. Club Wednesday night. Mrs. Martha Edin has received a letter from her nephew, Corporal Charles Sanquist, who is now located with the U. S. forces in Ireland. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eloff Sanquist and a former resident of this place.

James F. Masterson, third class petty officer in the U. S. Navy, arrived home this morning to spend a short furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Masterson, 8 Canton street. He will return to duty Sunday. The local young man has been in the navy over two years.

Rev. R. S. Naylor, Gerry Briggs, Algot Lindgren and Anton Lindquist represented the Russell Methodist church Tuesday evening at the eight-point Brotherhood meeting held in Kennedy, N. Y. Robert Young, of Warren, gave a fine talk on what a layman can do for his local church. There was a large attendance for this last meeting of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernleigh Belz, 32 Hemlock street, have received word from the War Department that their son, Private Robert W. Belz, has arrived safely at an unannounced destination.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Thompson, of Russell, have been notified by the War Department of the safe arrival at an unannounced destination, of their son, Private R. Frederick Thompson.

Kinzua

The high seniors recently celebrated "Sneak Day." Part of them enjoyed a trip to Erie and Presque Isle, while the others motored to Mt. Morris, N. Y., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Rosenberry and son. They also visited Houghton College.

Mrs. Clara Welden, who has been critically ill for several months, does not improve and last Sunday she was moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde English.

Frank Chicquino and Mr. and Mrs. John Maitland are on the sick list at present. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Maitland and daughter, of Meadville, visited the Maitland home last weekend.

Pvt. Joseph Snow, of Fort Devens, Mass., arrived home on a five-day furlough Wednesday of this week. He has recently been transferred from Texas to Massachusetts.

Corp. Clarence Smith has been transferred from Mitchell Field, N. Y., to Fort Dix. Technician Walter D. English recently completed a 10-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Boyd English, and returned to Fort Bragg, N. C. He was recently graduated from Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Pvt. Raymond Tuttle, from Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., and Pvt. Chester Tuttle, from Fort Benning, Ga., both sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tuttle, were recently home on furloughs granted by the death of their grandmother.

Mrs. Lillian Shine, of Pittsburgh, is visiting relatives in town. She was accompanied here by her daughter, and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Saffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Matson and son Stuart recently were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCallup, of St. Marys, and their new daughter, Mrs. McCallup was formerly Miss Freda Matson. Mrs. McCallup's sister, Mrs. Vivian Moore, is spending several weeks with her.

Mrs. Mary Morton returned to her home here from Rochester, N. Y., last week. She was accompanied by her daughter and son, Mrs. Lou Tunney and Tom Tunney; also her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Howard Morton, who remained with her.

J. R. Moore, of Mansfield, spent a short time at his home here the past week, but has returned to his work.

Eight members of the home guard here attended the federal inspection in Oil City last Monday evening, in which the Warren home guards, of which the Kinzua men are members, were given second place. Those belonging from Kinzua are Frank Colosino, Calvin Young, Dean Hurd, Richard Morrison, Paul Merrill, Charles Weinfeld, John Quiggle and Lyman Palmister.

Miss Ruth Smith has returned from a week's visit with her sister, Jessie, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Richard Smith suffered an eye injury last evening this week when he fell from his tractor while at work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan have returned to their home here for the summer, after spending the winter months in Warren and Olean, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green, of Sugar Run, have returned to their home, after spending the winter in Pittsburgh.

Weldbank

Weldbank, May 19—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gust, of Buffalo, N. Y., spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Naman Champion, of Weldbank.

John Hanley, of Lewis Run, and Margaret Hanley, of Washington, D. C., spent the weekend at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hanley, of Tiona.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graham and Shirley and Frank Stinger, of Sheffield; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Shaffer, of Weldbank, motored to Bradford Sunday and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan, of Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley and son, of Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmolsky, of Warren, visited relatives in Ridgway over Sunday.

Harry Jordan, of Erie, spent a few days with his family in Tiona. Mrs. Clyde Smith, of Williamsport, has returned home after spending a vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Bean, of Weldbank.

Arnold Matrin, of Mayburg, has moved his family into the residence owned by Mrs. Maggie Shaul, of Weldbank.

TITLE FIGHT FOR WINNER

New York, May 22.—(P.)—You'd think a fellow who came back alive from 21 rounds with Joe Louis wouldn't try to press Lady Luck against—but Rapid Robert Pastor is still asking for more.

And tonight in Madison Square Garden, he's taking on tough Tami Mauriello at 10 p. m. (EWT) to prove that he's not only ready, but willing and able to get a third chance at the Brown Bomber's choice assortment of sleep-making shots.

Some 12,000 of the faithful are expected to turn out to see Rapid Robert run up against the 13th hurdle in his current winning streak.

And with Billy Conn laid up with a severe case of in-law ailment, Bob's a cinch to get the July jamboree with Joe—if the Army gives the green light for it.

Of course, there's always the chance Mauriello, a better than bad bet for a right hand, might hang one on Bob's whiskers, and that's something that makes the summer program subject to change without notice. But this would be close to a miracle.

Pocket Billiard Tourney Resumes Action at YMCA

The first annual Y M C A. pocket billiard championship tournament continues this evening with the remaining four matches in first round competition on the program.

All games will be played with a maximum of 15 points set, and a contestant having to win the best two of three contests to claim a complete victory.

Tonight's scheduled matches are: Conroy vs. Hubbs, Lindquist vs. Finley, Lewis vs. Barnhart, Al-mendinger vs. Samuelson.

The quarter finals in the tournament are expected to be started Monday evening, with matches thus far having run ahead of schedule to some extent.

Fight Rained Out, Try Again Tonight

Washington, May 22.—(P.)—Weather scored last night, but Lou Nova and Lee Savold will meet in their heavyweight Navy Relief fight tonight, Promoter Mike Jacobs said.

Jacobs expressed confidence that 20,000 people would turn out for the fight, making a gate of upwards of $50,000 with about $25,000 to go to the Navy Relief Fund.

City Softball League Opens New Season Monday Night; Burgess to Hurl First Ball

Burgess Ray Steber will throw the first ball in the direction of home plate Monday night and another season of the City Softball League will be under way.

The Recreation Center and Struthers-Wells tangle in the league opener which promises to be one of the biggest events promoted in softball circles in a decade.

If all plans materialize as hoped for, the Struthers-Wells band will be in attendance at the west side diamond when the two City League outfits square off, and with interest beginning to grow in startling degrees, a large crowd is also expected to be present when the umpires issue the order to play ball.

Two of the finest aggregations to represent any organization locally in recent years, Monday evening's encounter between them promises to be packed with thrills and action from start to finish and the route set for the initial set-to is expected to be the regulation nine innings, though the chances are good that the game may either go into extra innings or be forced to end before nine innings have been completed.

Tuesday night the Knights of Columbus begin the defense of the league title which they annexed last year, meeting the Sons of Italy outfit, which rounds out the four team circuit.

Then, on Wednesday evening, Struthers-Wells will meet Sons of Italy, while the week's card will be completed with a Thursday night contest between the K. of C. and Recreation Center.

SPORTS SPATTERINGS

One day again the sun shall shine—we quote the Almanac for Warren County—1942. . . . If it's a sunny day by the time you read this text, then disregard our comments on the recent dampness. . . . But with war and other problems, both national and local, this has been more than just an unusual year. . . . Rain fell in March and May flowers grew in the balmy and sun-baked month of April. . . . Now the rain has been falling 'way over average in May. . . . And it's interrupted a lot of sporting events in this area, not the least of which is the project to remodel Russell Field. . . . With the work about half-way done, it's now up to the weather-man as to whether or not the work can be completed in time to open Sunset League activities in a week. . . . However, as the picture looks to us now, there'll be a ball game a week from Monday, and everything should be moving along smoothly by then. . . . When a ball, autographed by the Dodgers, was one of several articles sold in St. Louis in a war-bond fund campaign, it was valued at $900, but that was little comfort to the Bums. . . . A common bowling ball, not autographed, brought $28,500. . . . An example of how Brooklyn rates in that baseball-wild town. . . .

And then he found out. . . . So they captioned this little human interest story dug up by Wide World Features down in Nashville, Tenn. . . .

Umpire Red Jones and Umpire John Parks look a bit alike to Southern League baseball fans—and apparently a lot alike to slugging Les Fleming, Cleveland first-baseman who last season was slamming out hit for the Nashville Vols. . . . He walloped a long one in a game with Memphis, slicing the ball over left field fence.

"Honest," recalls Jones, "it was foul by this far (indicating with outstretched arms) but Fleming thought it was fair and charged around to where I was standing at third. He started paving the ground and raising Cain."

"So I tell him: 'Now, Les, you're the fellow these folks came out here to see. . . . You're the big hero of the league and they want to see you hit some more. . . . They didn't pay to see me umpire, and I don't want to throw you out. . . . Just go back there to the plate. . . . The ball was foul.'"

"About a week later my partner and I moved into Nashville for a series. Fleming came up to me and said: 'Red, old boy, am I glad to see you! Man, you can umpire for my money. Do you know what that means? . . . Park did to me the other night at Memphis? He robbed me of a home run that went out of the park at least 10 feet fair. I never saw such a robber in all my life. It's good to get somebody around here who can see!'" . . .

"That self-instruction record he bought is uncanny!"

CHAMPS WIN, State Hospital Club Host to Ashville In Encounter Tomorrow

By the Associated Press
The hapless Chicago White Sox, discouraged ball club rated as a pennant contender in the American League before the season started this spring, are no happier today as the result of a second successive defeat at the hands of the New York Yankees, yesterday by a 1-0 count as Ernie Bonham hung up his sixth win without a loss.

Boston's Red Sox battered Cleveland, 8-3, and the World Champions were again out in front with some of the pressure lifted from their shoulders.

In the two other American League games played, Connie Mack's Athletics ran rampant over Detroit, shelling Trout and Charley Fuchs in order to win 11-3, and Washington pushed by St. Louis on a 5-2 margin.

Only one game was played in the National League with the Philadelphia Phils edging Cincinnati 3 to 2, St. Johnson tossing sixth-inning ball.

The remainder of the senior circuit card was rained out.

Saying a prayer with the hope that it would bring some sunshine Saturday afternoon, Pilot "Rabbit" Swanson today disclosed the squad of baseballers which he intends to use in the opening game of the 1942 season for his State Hospital aggregation.

Harold Brown, Milton Dahler and Myron Jewell.

Outfielders—Donald Hoffman, James Akeley, Warren Check, Otis Marlett.

Pitchers—James Rose, Henry Wise, and Johnny Kane, with Chuck Clawson, who will handle some of the catching, also available for mound duty.

"Rabbit" will be on hand to fill in at second base or any needed spot in the infield, but does not plan to take part in as many games this year unless the occasion necessitates his entrance in the game.

Joe Massa, veteran baseball star of local semi-pro outfits, may present tomorrow to play a portion of the game in the outfield though he is not officially part of the team, as yet.
